

Article III: Members, of the UIRA Bylaws updated on 11.14.2023

Article III: Members

Section 1: Membership

UIRA represents staff and faculty who are at least 55 years old and have retired from the University of Iowa. Such faculty and staff and their spouses or significant others are eligible to be members of the UIRA. Associate membership (non-voting, non-office holding) is open to those who have present or previous ties to the university.

Section 2: Provisional Membership

Provisional membership is offered to all eligible faculty and staff immediately after retirement until the next September 1. Thereafter the retiree will elect, or not, to continue membership by paying dues.

Section 3: Termination of Membership

Membership is terminated after non-payment of dues.
